PIONEER NEWS SERVICE ■ KANPUR

The country celebrated its seventh National Voters Day which was celebrated on January 25 every year. The importance of the day was to encourage youngsters who had reached the age of 18 of the country to participate in the electoral process by enrolling or registering themselves in electoral rolls and to exercise their franchise. With Uttar Pradesh going to polls the next month much emphasis was being laid on voters awareness so that the voter turnout of the election could be maximum and right candidate should be selected. The day commemorates the Foundation Day of the Election Commission of India which came into being on January 25, 1950.

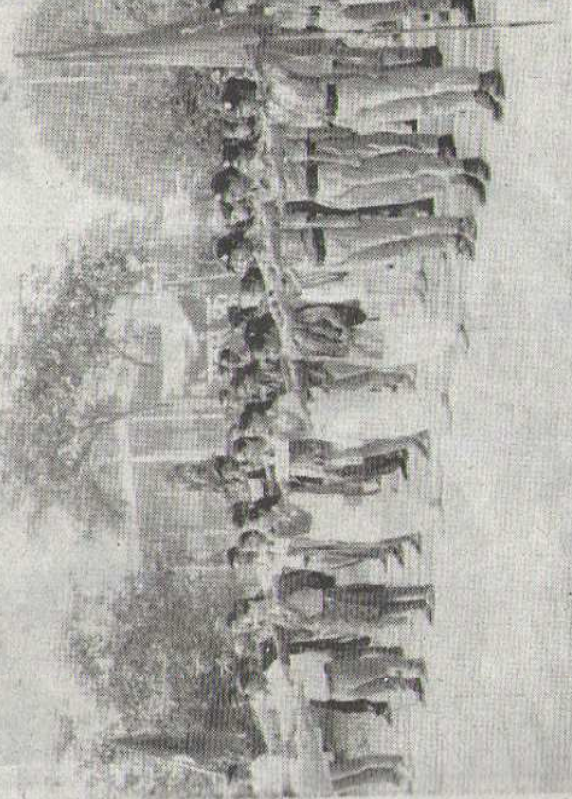

This was stated by Dr KN

He said India had the well defined institutions of democracy such as parliament doing the legislative function, a cabinet headed by the Prime Minister doing the executive function and the Supreme Court and its subordinates doing the judicial function. He said all these three institutions were enshrined in the Constitution of India that came into force on this day. He said India had multi-party system and the parties actively participate in the election process which was conducted and supervised by the Election Commission of India.
